Subject: In re Amanda Marie Runion
Case No. 18-33476-dwh7

Greetings:

On November 27, 2018, I held a hearing in this case on the Motion for Reconsideration of Order Waiving Filing Fees filed by the trustee, Kenneth S. Eiler.¹ The trustee represented himself, and Laura Renee Zaro represented debtor, Amanda Marie Runion.

In the motion, the trustee requested reconsideration of my Order re Debtor's Application for Waiver of Chapter 7 Filing Fee,² which granted Runion's Application to Have the Chapter 7 Filing Fee Waived and permitted the trustee to request reconsideration within 14 days.³ His reconsideration motion was timely.

In light of all the evidence of the circumstances of the application—including Runion's parents' payment of $450 to Zaro's law firm and their regular monthly payments to her of at least a net of $300—I find that Runion is able to pay the $335 chapter 7 filing fee in installments.

I will grant the motion for reconsideration. The trustee should circulate and lodge a proposed order granting the motion and directing the clerk to enter the standard order allowing payment of the fee in installments.

Sincerely,
